

The Wonders questions

1. The Wonders are a fictitious band because they:
 - a) aren't really musicians
 - b) only exist in the movie
 - c) are liars
 - d) actually belong to another band
2. The young musicians got a lucky break (were discovered) because:
 - a) the replacement drummer played the song too slow
 - b) Jimmy changed the band name from "the On-eaders" to "The Wonders"
 - c) they signed with Playtone Records
 - d) the replacement drummer played the song too fast
3. Roger Ebert's review of the movie:
 - a) caused the movie to fail (no one went to see it)
 - b) made the movie famous
 - c) had no effect (people liked it despite his review)
 - d) upset the actors who were in the movie
4. The city of Erie, Indiana liked the movie because:
 - a) it briefly made the city famous
 - b) the actors in the movie actually grew up there
 - c) it made money for the city
 - d) the mayor of Erie was invited to visit Japan
5. Playtone records renamed the band "The Wonders" because:
 - a) the public was pronouncing the band's name incorrectly
 - b) there was another band that had the same name
 - c) "the One-ders" is a spelling error
 - d) they could, so they did
6. The Wonders broke up because:
 - a) they were on tour for more than a year
 - b) they ran out of songs to play
 - c) of the pressures of the music industry
 - d) the bass player joined the army
7. The movie is popular with many people because:
 - a) they can buy it on iTunes
 - b) they can watch the entire movie for free on YouTube
 - c) Roger Ebert changed his mind about the movie
 - d) the songs in the movie are infectious
8. The songs in the movie were written by:
 - a) the movie's director and producers
 - b) the actors who played the band in the movie
 - c) an unnamed person
 - d) Adam Schlesinger, who died from COVID